Accessing Books

1. Click the Books link or icon to go to the Books page to begin.

Books Page

The Books page includes the student and teacher editions, teacher resources, lesson plans, and videos (if available) for all titles assigned to your account.

2. To open a Student Book, click the book cover thumbnail (1), book title (2), or student book link (3).

3. To open a Teacher Edition, click the teacher edition link.

4. To open the Teacher Resources, click the teacher resources link.

A menu will pop up with all available resources for that book. Click on any resource title to download and open it.

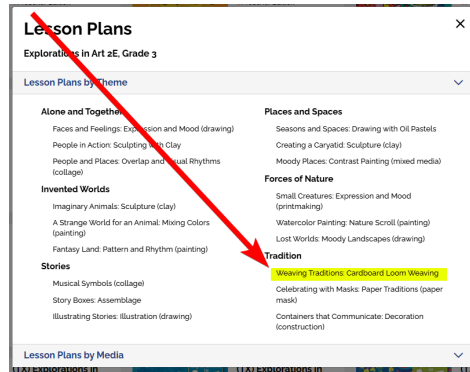

This is a screenshot of a web application menu titled "Teacher Resources" for the book "Explorations in Art 2E, Grade 3". The menu is organized into sections: "Resources for Teachers", "Student Handouts", "Artroom Reference Sheets", and "Artroom Reference Sheets (Spanish)". Under "Resources for Teachers", there are two columns of links. The first column includes "STEAM Explorations Possible Answers - Level 3" (highlighted with a red box), "Improving English Language Skills", "Spanish Glossary", and "Glossary". The second column includes "Artist Biographies", "Studio Exploration Rubrics", "Internet Safety", and "Pacing Guide". A red arrow points from the "STEAM Explorations Possible Answers - Level 3" link towards the top right corner of the menu.

5. To open Lesson Plans, click on the Lessons Plan link.

This is a screenshot of a book selection menu for "Explorations in Art 2E, Grade 3" by Marilyn G. Stewart, Second Edition. On the left is the book cover, which features a colorful illustration of a tiger's face in a jungle setting. On the right is a list of resource options: "Student Book", "Teacher Edition", "Teacher Resources", "Lesson Plans" (highlighted with a yellow box and a red arrow), and "Image Collection".

6. A menu will pop-up with all available Lesson Plans for that book. Lesson Plans are organized by Theme and Media, click on any Lesson Plan to download and open it.

The Visual Experience 4E

Book Collections Davis Publications' Book Collections are sets of supplemental fine art images correlated to each unit and lesson in all of Davis' digital programs. The images, chosen by Davis' curator of images, are perfect for expanding the scope of a lesson or studio experience. The images are accompanied by complete contextual information. The chapter and lesson number from each program are listed under the "Description" heading in each image record.

9. Some books include instructional Videos which can be accessed by clicking Video Resources (you will see a link below Teacher Resources). Click this link to access the videos for that book.

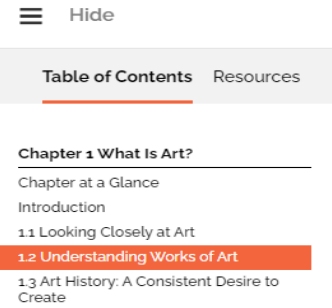

Book Controls

10. Open any book's Table of Contents by clicking the icon or link at the top left of the screen. The Table of Contents menu will slide open.

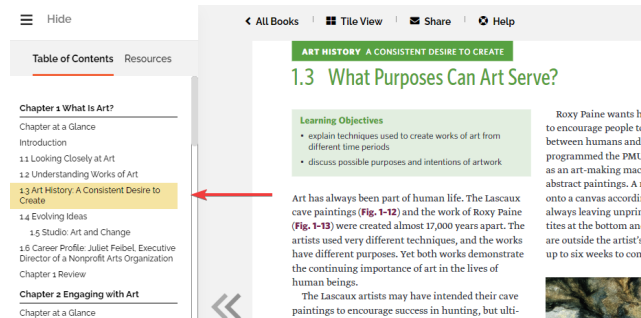

11. Scroll through the Table of Contents to see the lessons and content in the book. Click any lesson title to go directly to that page in the book. The lesson you select will be highlighted in orange in the Table of Contents.

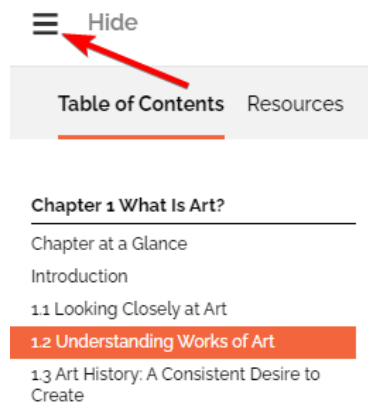

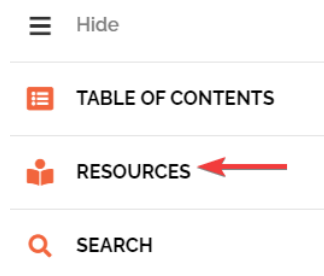

12. If you close the Table of Contents and open it again, the page you are viewing will be highlighted in the menu so you can easily find your place.

13. You can hide the Table of Contents at any time by clicking the Hide button.

14. Teacher Resources can also be accessed from inside the Teacher Edition of any book. Click the Resources icon or link to view them.

If the Table of Contents is open, click the Resources link to toggle between the two.

15. The Keyword Search allows you to search the entire book for an artist, element or principle, theme, or any text you desire. When the Table of Contents menu is closed, click the magnifying glass icon to begin your search.

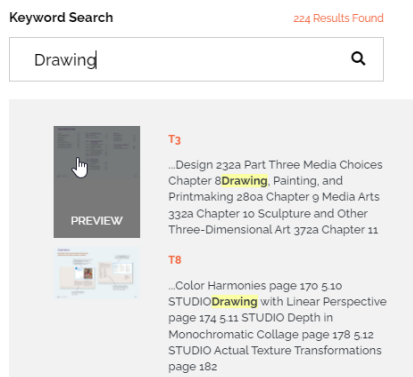

When the menu is open, enter your search criteria in the blue Search box at the bottom of the Table of Contents.

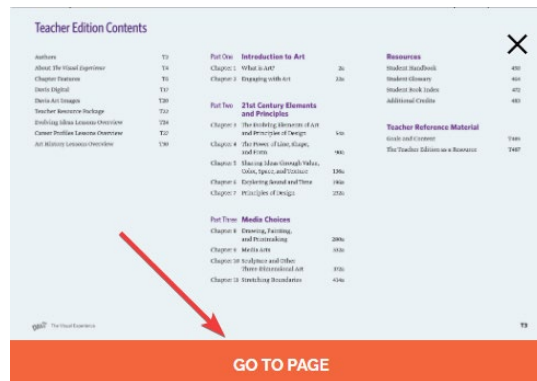

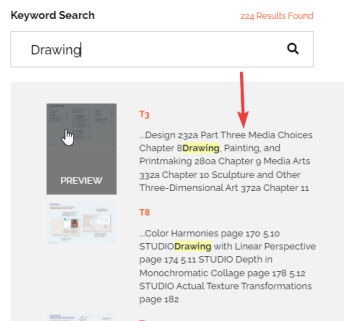

16. Your search results will open in a pop-up. To Preview the Book page before selecting it, click the Book thumbnail.

Once you've found what you're looking for, click Go to Page in the preview to go directly to that page in the book.

17. To skip the preview, click the text next to the page thumbnail to open it in the book.

18. Your search term will be highlighted in yellow on the page. To remove the highlights, conduct another search or refresh your internet browser.

The Scourge Vanquished by Shawn Cheng

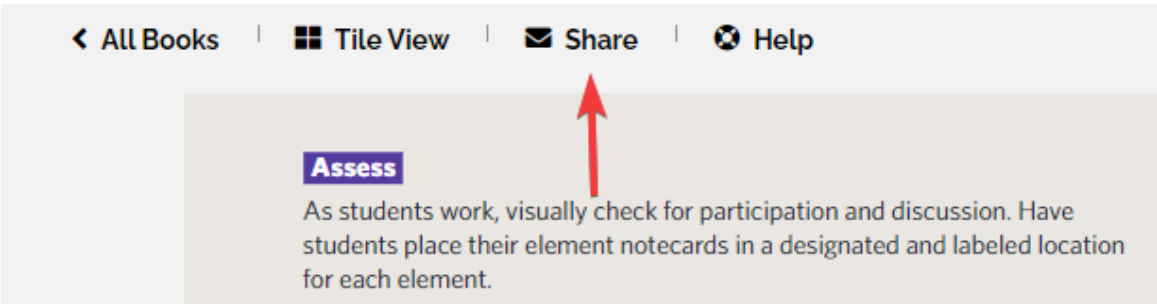

Fig. 1-9 mimics the look and feel of comic book art. Before about 1950, fine art and comic art were considered separate realms. But an art movement called Pop Art started to change people's attitudes about comic art. Today, new digital drawing techniques and the sophisticated imagery and storylines of graphic novels have helped comic art gain acceptance as a fine art in its own right. Many comic artists now produce paintings, drawings, and prints that they exhibit and sell.

1-9 Cheng often transfers detailed ink drawings to a panel that has been painted black. The images are transferred to the panel via silkscreen techniques, and he fills in the colors with brushes and rollers. How does this work differ from regular graphic novel art—or does it? Shawn Cheng, The Scourge Vanquished, 2015. Acrylic and ink on panel, 48" x 36" (121.9 x 91.4 cm). Worcester Art Museum, Massachusetts, USA/Chapin Kiley I and Bridgeman Images.

The email will contain a link to the lesson you selected, but no other book content will be accessible. The link will remain active for 14 days.

21. Tile View shows a thumbnail image of every page in the book, allowing you to find a lesson quickly and easily. Click the Tile View button to begin.

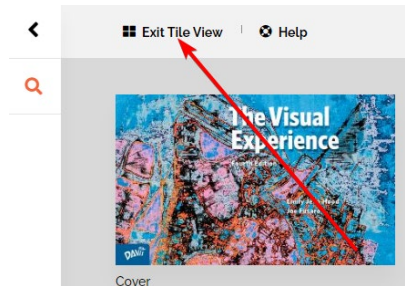

22. Click a thumbnail image to open that page.

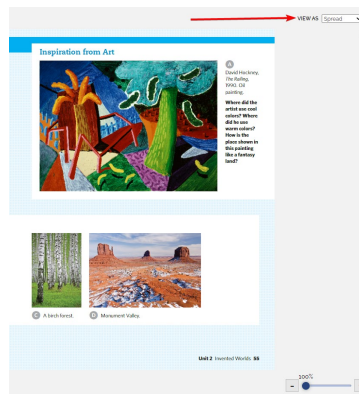

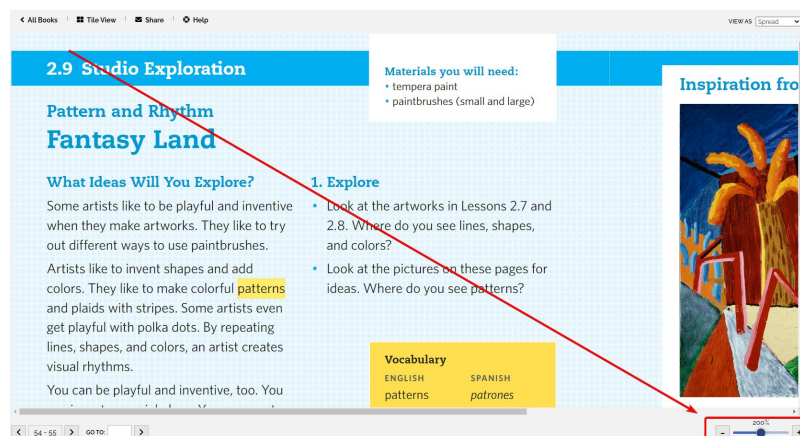

23. To exit Tile View without opening a page, click Exit Tile View.

24. When viewing a book with a two-page spread, you can use View As to select a single-page view.

25. The Zoom Slider can magnify the page up to 300%. Click and drag the slide bar or use the plus and minus buttons to increase or decrease the zoom.

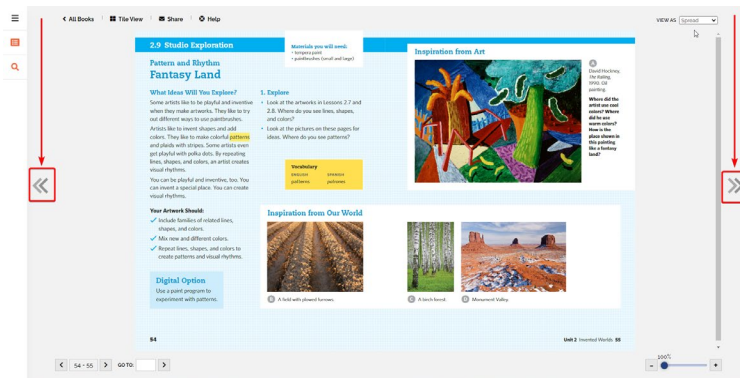

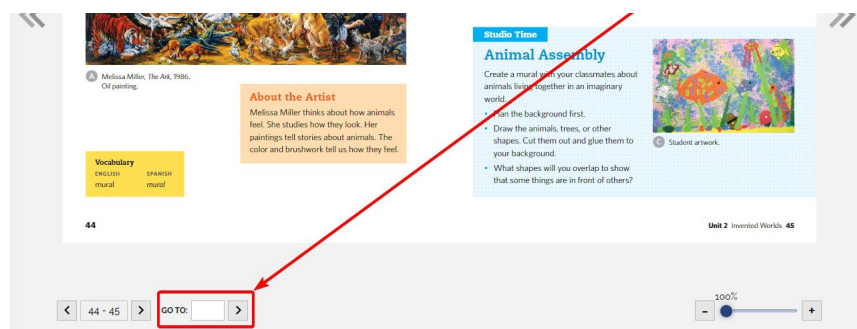

26. Double-click anywhere on the page to automatically zoom in to a 200% view. Double-click again to return to the regular page view.

27. Turn the page by clicking the arrows on the left and right edges of each page or at the bottom left of the book.

28. Use Go to Page on the bottom left of the screen to jump to a specific page number. Enter the desired page number and click the arrow.

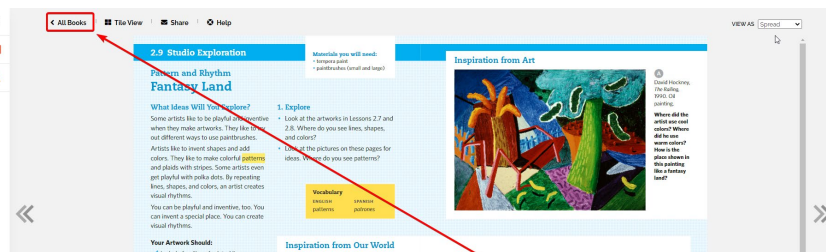

29. To view the User Guides and Tutorial Videos on the Help Page, click the Help button.

30. To return to the My Books page, click All Books.

Media Pane

31. Some Books include a Media Pane with access to enlarged versions of the Fine Art images. In the Student edition, the Media Pane will automatically open when enlarged images are available.

32. Click the Hide button to hide the Media pane and increase the size of the book.

33. To view a single image at full size, click the thumbnail in the Media Pane.

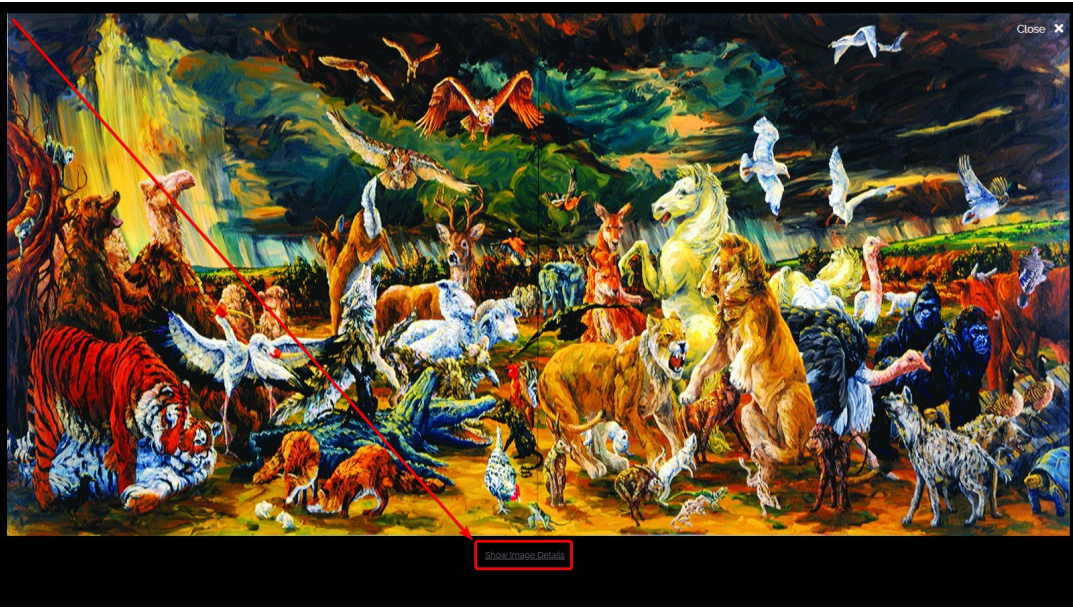

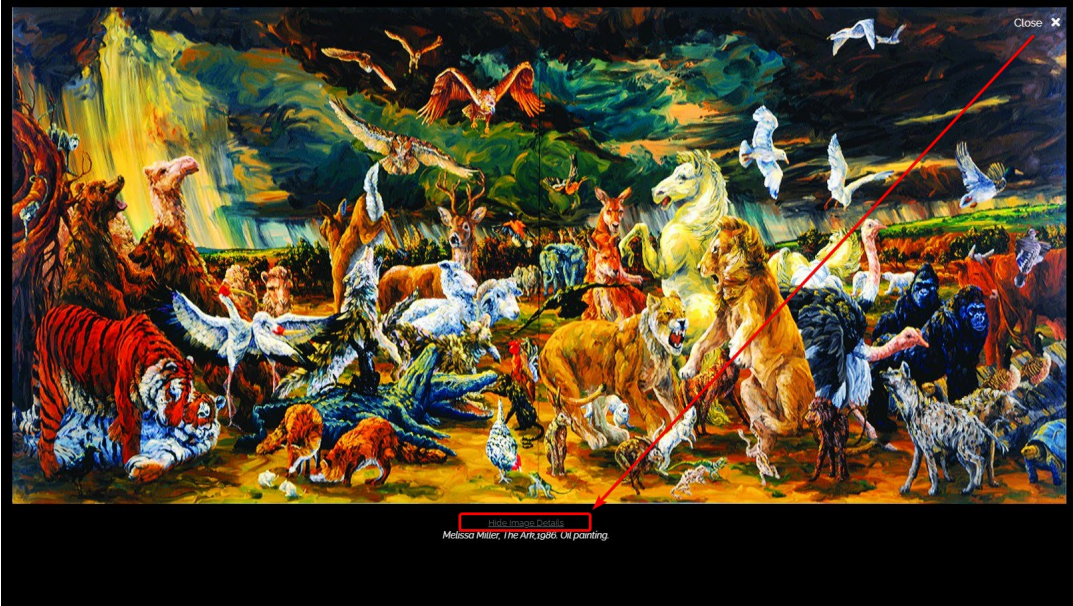

From there, you can magnify the image up to 300% with the zoom controls.

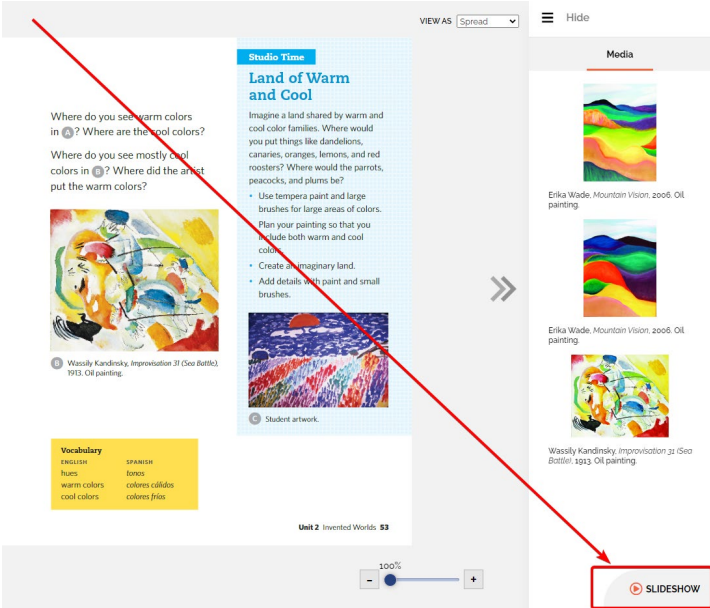

34. You can hide the Artist Name, Title, and image information by clicking Hide Image Details.

35. If the page features more than one fine art image, click Slideshow to view them in a full-screen slideshow.

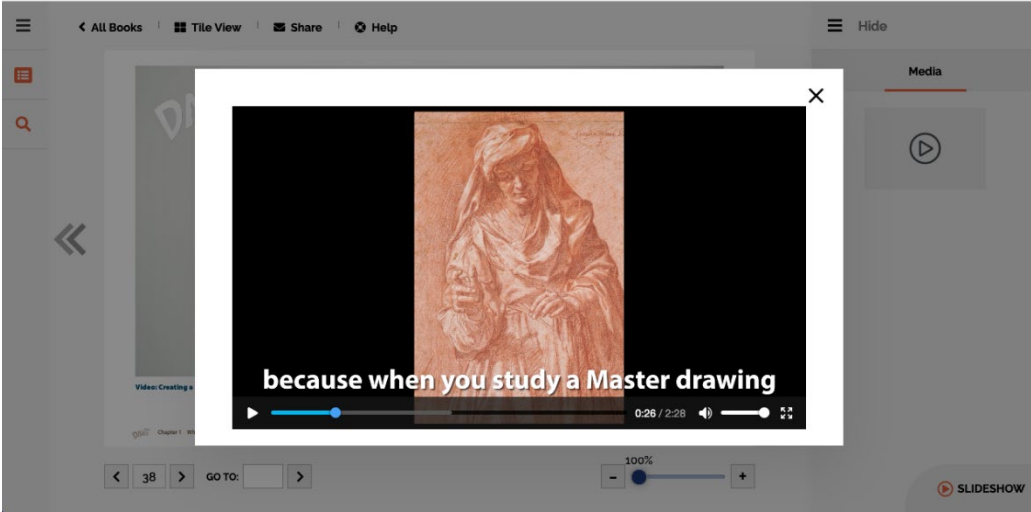

36. In some books, videos also appear in the Media Pane. Click the play icon in the pane to watch the video.

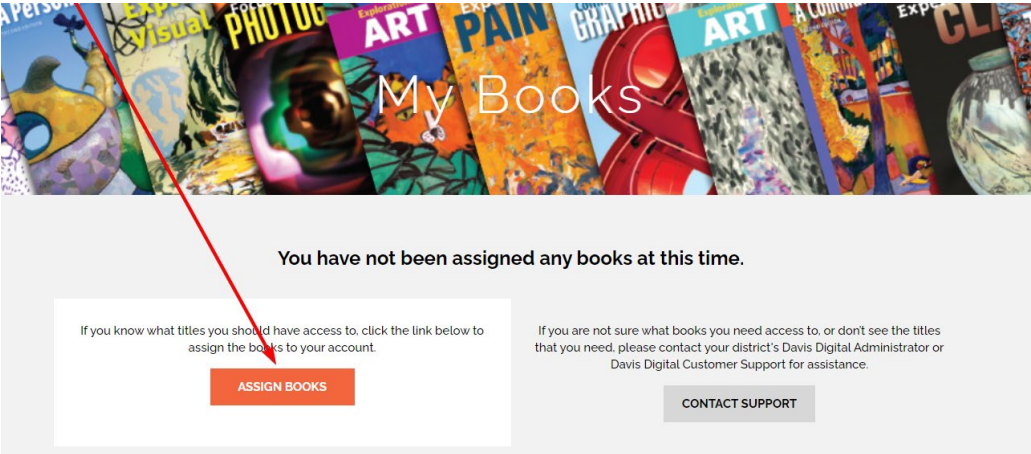

The video will open as a pop-up that can be expanded to full screen. Hover over the video to see the video controls: Play/Pause, Volume and Full Screen.

Self-Assigning Books

If there are no books in your account, you may be able to self-assign them.

37. To begin, click the Assign Books button to self-assign books to your account.

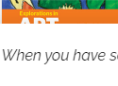

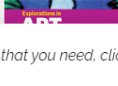

38. A list of books for your district will appear. If you do not see the title you are looking for, all the eBook licenses may have been assigned to other users. In this case, contact your administrator or create a Support Ticket.
